

Providing Help. Creating Hope.

Celebrate National Adoption Month
November 10, 2011

The Adoption and Pregnancy Counseling Program of Catholic Charities of SouthWestern Ohio proudly presents:

Telling the Truth to your Adopted or Foster Child: Making Sense of the Past

Presenter

Jayne Schooler
Adoption educator and author

When should children know the truth about their adoption story? Should it be the whole truth? How do we tell them the difficult and painful facts from the past? What challenges are there for pre-teens and teens in knowing about their past? This interactive workshop will discuss these questions and more as we journey through the importance of talking to our children about their adoption story.

Jayne E. Schooler is a national and international trainer in the field of child welfare. She is the author/co-author of seven books in the field of child welfare including her newest: Wounded Children, Healing Homes: How Traumatized Children Impact Foster and Adoptive Parents. Jayne's international work has taken her to Ukraine, Kyrgyzstan, Poland, and New Zealand. Recently two of her books have been translated into Russian and Polish.
